

Advisement

Academic advising is an essential component of a Syracuse University education.

The University is committed to providing the individual advice and assistance that students need at every step throughout their degree programs. A successful system of advisement is highly dependent upon a shared commitment by students, faculty, and staff to the process and the availability of timely, accurate information.

Resources
- Advisement
  - Undergraduate Advisement
  - Graduate Advisement
  - Forms
  - Arch Course Schedule
- Career Services
- Library Services
- Technology
- Student Organizations
- Calendar
- Lecture Archive